

SAM KNAIZER

BP Lower 48, BP America Production Company

Sam Knaizer is Director of Government and Public Affairs for BP Lower 48 in Colorado, where he serves as an issue advocate and liaison with key stakeholders in Colorado including elected officials, regulatory authorities, and other policy makers. Prior to joining BP he was a Policy Advisor at Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP, where he advised clients on a variety of natural resource issues.

Mr. Knaizer has spent over a decade working in the energy sector. He was Manager of Government Affairs for Whiting Petroleum Corporation and managed government and regulatory affairs efforts for Newfield Exploration Company. Mr. Knaizer began his career with American Energy Assets, where he was responsible for managing environmental policy and assisting in business development.

Mr. Knaizer graduated from the University of Colorado at Boulder with a Bachelor of Arts Degree and received his Juris Doctor from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law.

DPC Director: 2014-present